Girard's Great Monument.

The New Building to be Erected in the College Grounds.

Philadelphia Press. Plans have already been prepared for the new building to be erected on the Girard college grounds west of the chapel. It will be of the college Gothic style of architecture, the exterior being faced with white marble. The interior will be plain, but of a substantial character, the stairs to be iron and the corridors leading thereto of fire-proof construction. Steam is to be used for heating and the ventilation will be perfect in every detail. The building will be 300 feet in depth, running north and south, with a frontage of 80 feet depth from the north end by feet in depth. This portion will be three stories in height and will contain the sleeping apartments, dormi-tories, baths and the office of the matron with general storage rooms for supplies &c. The dining hall will adjoin and be a building in itself, having accommodations for feeding 1,000 boys. It will be 95 feet in width by 120 feet in length, with diningroom and kitchen apartments, offices, dining rooms, sculleries and dining room for servants, covering an additional area of 66 by 140 feet. It will be a one room apartment, lighted and ventilated by a central lantern, the kitchen attached being also one story high, and the offices adjoin-ing on either side being for servants' bed rooms. Beneath the dining hall will be the basement, which will be made a cellarstory by areas on either side. This will be the gymnasium. It is to be erected west of the chapel.

Socially Hard Cases.

Vanity Fair, June 26. CITY PLAN.
The following changes in the southeastern and southwestern sections of Lancaster city are made, as directed by court, and may be seen in the office of the Clerk of Quarter Ses-Sold by our enterprising young friend, H| E-SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy,

Reigart's Old Brandy,
In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
